At the close of the banquet all returned to the lodge room where a very impressive and interesting address was made to the Knights by Mr. Ashbrook, and very fittingly replied to by Dr. C. A. Bartle and others. All departed at a late hour, wishing him a most pleasant and happy experience in our national capital and assuring him that upon his return he would be gladly received and welcomed back to his duties in White Cross Lodge No. 508, K. of P. WHAT DOES IT PROVE?
(New York World.)
Some of the world's contemporaries attach great significance to the delegate letter which President Roosevelt has issued to heads of departments. The letter follows:
It has been called to my attention that certain office holders under your department have been proposing to attain election as delegates to the National Convention with a view to advocating my renomination or proposing my indorsement by State conventions. This must not be. You will notify such office holders as may be necessary that their acceptance of election as delegates for this purpose, or advocating such renomination, will be regarded as a serious violation of official propriety, and will be dealt with accordingly.
Now, this may be very significant indeed, but the world cannot find in Mr. Roosevelt's warning to government office holders the glimmering of a suggestion that he objects to the election of Roosevelt delegates or that he is not determined to control the Republican National Convention. All he says is that he objects to Federal employees going to the convention as Roosevelt delegates.
This is anything but an abdication of power.

tion of power. Mr. Roosevelt was not born yesterday. He remembers the Federal office holders' convention at Minneapolis in 1892 which renominated Harrison. He also remembers the consequences, and he is determined that history shall not repeat itself.
Mr. Roosevelt is still playing hide and seek with the nomination, as Justice Brewer said. It is evident that the letter to the heads of the departments is no less a guide than a warning to Federal employees.
When translated out of the White House vernacular does it mean either more or less than "Don't go yourself; send a reliable substitute?"

ALL WRONG
The Mistake is Made by Many Newark Citizens.
Don't mistake the cause of backache.
To be cured you must know the cause.
It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.
Backache is kidney ache.
You must cure the kidneys.
A Newark resident tells you how this can be done.
Wesley Rowland, express driver, living on Washington St., near Mill St., East Newark, O., says: "Many a time my back pained me so and was so weak that I could not load my wagon. If I stopped to pick up anything it was all I could do to straighten up. My back pained me so at night that I could not sleep. I would wake up again with terrible pain through the back and shoulders as if I were in a cramp. I tried liniments and various remedies but found nothing that helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. Three boxes were all that were required to cure me and the cure has been permanent. That was two years ago and I have had no trouble of the kind since."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

WM. J. BRYAN'S LATEST PICTURE

DEATHS AND FUNERALS
JACOB ACKERMAN.
The funeral services over the remains of Jacob Ackerman who died at his home on South Sixth st., Friday morning, will be held from the family residence on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and will be private. Friends may view the remains Sunday between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. Besides the immediate family, the deceased is survived by 18 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
Jacob Ackerman was born in Germany and came to America with his parents at the age of about four years. They located at Erie, Pa., where his young manhood was spent and where he learned the trade of a cloth manufacturer, a work that was done altogether by hand, the designs being put on by hand moulds, devices that he had in his possession at his death. In early years he traveled extensively in the south and east, selling the products of his skill and did a large business.
He was married to Miss Anna Billing of Erie, Pa., in 1850 and moved to Baltimore, Md., and after a short stay there they came to Newark and had since resided in the home that he built 51 years ago, his death being the first that has occurred there. After locating here the deceased engaged in the cooper trade and established a shop at his home where for many years he did business, his flour barrels selling for $1.50 each during the Civil war period.
He was a great lover of nature and outdoor work finally appealed to him so strongly he gradually gave up his trade and engaged in gardening, in which for years he enjoyed great success. A nursery stock was added and he became an authority on horticulture. Many are the monuments to his memory in the hundreds of fine shade trees that contribute to the beauty of the streets of Newark today that he planted and nurtured.
For many years he had been a member of the Second Presbyterian church. He was a man of strong religious conviction, and nothing could shake him in his honesty and integrity. He was a great scripture student and his keenest delight was to have the open prayer of the old family Bible before him. He was genial and kind, a true friend and neighbor and was a great friend of missions.
Deceased is survived by his wife, now in her 74th year. They were the parents of ten children, of whom nine are living.
MRS. DIANA MYRES.
Mrs. George Homan, of 47 West 9th avenue, received word of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Diana Myres, which occurred at her home at Cedar Run, Mich., at the age of 90 years. The message was very brief, merely stating that she arose from her bed in her usual health and sitting down to the table to partake of the morning meal, suddenly expired. Mrs. Myres will be remembered by many of the older people of Newark, where she spent her early life. Her services will be had at her late home, where the interment will also be made.

DRUNKENNESS A CURABLE DISEASE
Eminent Physicians and Scientific Men Agree That it Should be Treated as Such.
Drunkenness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.
The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orrine. It is a scientific cure for Drunkenness and has given such universal satisfaction that it is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. This guarantee is given in good faith and is carried out to the letter. Orrine is not a new remedy; it has been sold by the leading druggists in every city for years. It has lifted tens of thousands from the depths to worthy manhood and has the hearty endorsement of grateful men and women in every state in the Union.
Orrine No. 1 is the secret remedy; Orrine No. 2 is for those willing to take the treatment. Either form costs $1.00. The guarantee is the same in either case. Write to The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., for free treatise on Drunkenness, mailed in plain sealed envelope. Orrine will be mailed sealed on receipt of price. Sold by the leading druggists in every town and city, and in this city by Frank D. Hall.

CORONER RENDERS VERDICT.
Coroner Goodman has filed a report of his inquest over the dead body of Frank E. Crawford of Newark, who was killed at Shelby, Monday. He found the trainman came to his death by being run over by a B. & O. train. The body was cut in two, the left arm was cut off, and there was a cut under his left eye.
The story of Malcolm A. Clark, brakeman of train No. 30, running from Chicago Junction to Newark, is that the last time he saw Crawford was when they were backing into the B. & O. roundhouse at Shelby Junction. He says that Crawford told him what car he should get out of there. He said he saw him beneath the car lying across the west rail in front of the freight platform cut in two. He says he thinks it was about 1:30 or 20 minutes after he talked with him that Crawford was found dead. No person saw the accident.—Mansfield Shield.

Buckeye State Oil and Gas Company Lease 800 Acres To Put Down a Test Well.

The Buckeye State Oil and Gas company has leased more than 800 acres in the vicinity of Frazeyburg and will commence work on a well in the near future. There are oil and gas wells within twelve miles of the place, at Fallsburg, and this company expects to strike oil or gas at Frazeyburg. The leases are all on the profit participating plan. They are eight in number and the land is all in the same vicinity. The people of Frazeyburg are anxiously awaiting the outcome of the drilling of the wells.

TRY THE WATER

Splendid Home Remedy for Stomach and Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism.

"The people here do not drink enough water to keep healthy," exclaimed a well known authority. "The numerous cases of stomach trouble, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism are mainly due to the fact that the drinking of water, nature's greatest purifier, is neglected."

Stop loading your system with patent medicines and cure-alls; but get on the water wagon. If you are really sick, why, of course, take the proper medicines—plain common vegetable treatment, which will not shatter the nerves or ruin the stomach."

When requested for such a prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney trouble, the answer was: "You must make the kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder, and, most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach trouble and poor digestion. For these conditions I would suggest the following prescription: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bed time, but don't forget the water. Drink plenty and often."

This valuable information and simple prescription should be posted up in each household and used at the first sign of an attack of rheumatism, backache or urinary trouble, no matter how slight.

PROMINENT HOSPITALS SAY

PE-RU-NA IS EFFICIENT IN RELIEVING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES.

SISTERS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, MONTREAL.

HOSPITALS ALL OVER THE CONTINENT FIND PE-RU-NA VALUABLE IN TREATING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES

CATARRH of the respiratory organs is a common ailment in Canada for at least two-thirds of the year.

This condition is no doubt caused by the long, severe winters experienced in this part of the continent.

Therefore, when Peruna was discovered by Canadian people to be a reliable remedy for these catarrhal diseases, it at once became a popular medicine, not only among individuals and in families, but in the great hospitals, where it was used as a preventative and relief in hundreds of cases.

These institutions do not hesitate to give their endorsement of the remedy which has been so helpful in the treatment of their poor and sick.

Among these institutions is that of the Sisters of Good Shepherd, who gave the following endorsement:

The Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio,

Having used Peruna for the past few months, for our sick and poor, we are happy to say that it has given us great satisfaction.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, August 20, 1903.

Montreal.

After a continued use of the remedy, this institution has found no reason to change its good opinion of the remedy and expresses its satisfaction in the following terms:

Montreal, Nov. 7, 1903.

We found Peruna a relief in several cases. We can say it is a good tonic and we are very thankful.

Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

When catarrh once fastens itself upon the system it becomes an obstinate disease to eradicate.

A systemic remedy—one that reaches every internal organ of the body—is an absolute necessity.

Peruna is just such a remedy. It searches out the cause of the disease, healing and strengthening the mucous membranes, and thus giving Nature an opportunity to perform her part of the restorative process.

One of the many hospitals which have found Peruna of value in treating old and obstinate cases of catarrh is the Hospital St. John, who write as follows:

"We are happy to tell you that your Peruna has given us satisfaction. Three patients have tried it, one 65 years old, Renouil Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is much relieved, more than he has been for a number of years."

"A young girl, 15 years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of Peruna caused to disappear."

"As to myself, two bottles have convinced me that Peruna is magnificent as a tonic."

"Before the treatment I could not walk for a quarter of an hour without experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily."

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

Hospital St. John, of St. Johns, Province of Quebec.

A later letter received from the same institution reads as follows:

"Three weeks ago I wrote to tell you how satisfactory we found Peruna. We recommend it highly for colds, coughs, catarrh and neuralgia."

"I have used it myself as a tonic with the best results, taken as directed, half a teaspoonful every half hour."

Mrs. Etta Booker, Dundurn, Sask., N. W. T., Canada, writes:

"I suffered with pelvic catarrh until I wrote to Dr. Hartman, and after taking treatment as he advised, I can say I am now cured of this most trying affliction, for which I am truly thankful. I think Peruna the best medicine for catarrh. I never felt better in my life than I do at present."

Peruna not only promptly relieves coughs and colds in their first stages, but is equally prompt and efficient for catarrhal diseases in the chronic stage.

Of course, it is only reasonable to suppose that a great deal less medicine will be necessary to cure a slight attack of catarrh than would be required to relieve the ailment after it had been allowed to become chronic.

STURGESS CUTS

"There will be no redistricting of the O. and P. league territory, which will separate the four eastern from the four western cities," states the Akron Press. "President Sturgess,

the club owners in Marion, Lancaster yesterday delivered an ultimatum to this effect.

"If the magnates of Akron, Youngstown, Sharon and New Castle than again be linked with the four western clubs, Sturgess says they can do it. His statements regarding the stand taken by the western magnates is in direct contradiction to statements heretofore given out on the same subject.

"It is planned to dispose of the Lancaster franchise to Zanesville, and the western people are of the opinion that if such a deal can be put through the eastern owners will be satisfied to allow the circuit of ception. Of course, the objections of

TOBACCO KILLS

An Absolute "Stopper" for the Brain-Killing, Nerve Destroying Tobacco Habit Has Been Found.

Send for a Trial Treatment Today.

The tobacco habit is a curse, and every man knows it. Some "smart kids" don't know it. Most men would like to quit, if they knew they could do it "easy", without causing them discomfort.

"Easy-to-Quit" is a treatment that will make the smoker and the chewer absolutely quit for good the use of tobacco in any form.

THE START.

You know what the finish will be unless you cure him of the awful habit. He cannot do it himself.

Tobacco deadens the brain, stupefies the conscience, ruins the affections, brings the beast to the surface.
Most tobacco users are the last ones in the race for success. Business men nowadays are looking around for men and boys who are not tobacco slaves—for clear-headed, strong-nerved helpers, who can be relied on.

It takes only ten minutes for tobacco to change the beats of the heart.
To keep it up is to tempt death by heart disease, nervous collapse, tobacco cancer, and stomach, liver or kidney diseases.

For the young cigarette fiend who has become so calloused that he smokes in the face of his mother, sister, wife or sweetheart, "Easy-to-Quit"
is a salvation.

Mothers, save the young smoker's brain, he cannot do it himself. Wives, sisters and sweethearts, help save the mind, body and future of some one who is near and dear to you. Without your help it may not be done.

"Easy-to-Quit" is a positive, absolute "stopper" for any tobacco habit.
It is a vegetable remedy, and any lady can give it SECRETLY in food or drink. It is harmless; leaves no reaction or bad after effects and it stops the habit to stay stopped.

SOMETHING DOING IN O. P. CIRCLES

There's something doing in O. and
P. circles, but it's hard to get wise to it. Friday afternoon Manager Frank Maurath of this city, accidentally (?) dropped into the Harman hotel at Columbus, and strange to relate ran across Secretary L. J. Smith and E. G. Staiger of Marion, Louis Rosey and W. D. Nothaker of Lancaster, and Manager Carl McVey of Mansfield. In a short time the hotel lobby was full of reporters, but the gentlemen could not be located. It was thought that they had gone to the basement to inspect the heating apparatus.

An Advocate reporter interviewed Manager Maurath Saturday morning and he stated that the meeting was a friendly one called by the members of the southern end of the circuit to talk over the situation. "Newark is going to have good, classy ball the coming season, and we are going to be right among the league leaders and you can mark that down in your notebook," said Mr. Maurath.

"There's no change in the situation," continued the business manager, and the little informal meeting in Columbus was merely for the purpose of talking it over and getting a line on what we expect to accomplish at the Cleveland meeting in January.
We are in a position to dictate the terms, and that's just what we propose to do, dictate the terms to our northern brethren.

"They are claiming daily that they want to leave the league as it now is dictated, but will not put their threat in writing. If they would only do so we would have clear sailing."

There may be something doing within the next few days as another meeting has been arranged and will likely be held the latter part of next week.

LOOKING FOR BALL PLAYERS

"I have given sufficient notice to the baseball players who played in the last game here with Youngstown team that they have been indicted and for them to come into court and put up bonds. Now I intend to take my four deputies out and scour the state for them, if necessary. I have given orders that if they are located they shall be placed in jail." This is the statement made by Sheriff Normandie of Youngstown, recently, when he was asked as to the action taken against the ball players. Fourteen baseball men, including Manager Sam Wright and Mert Whitney, have been indicted. They are now fugitives from justice.

MR. WELLMAN RETURNS; TO SEEK POLE AGAIN.

WELLMAN AIRSHIP LEAVING AIRSHED

MR. WALTER WELLMAN

New York, Nov. 29.—More firmly convinced than ever before that the only way to discover the North Pole is by means of an airship, Walter Wellman returned on the Majestic, of the White Star line, after his second Arctic regions. Mr. Wellman's airship, the America, was wrecked at Spitzbergen Sept. 2, causing the temporary abandonment of the aerial expedition to the North Pole. "I am not at all discouraged," Mr. Wellman said yesterday. "I expect to make another effort next year or the year after, and if I can only find favorable weather, I fully expect to reach the pole."

RECUPERATED BY LICKING CO. AIR

Coshocton, O., Nov. 30.—J. C. Fisher, for many years in the newspaper business here, has returned from a sojourn on his farm in Licking county, where he has spent nearly all of the last eight months. He went to his old boyhood home, put on a suit of working clothes and took upon himself a portion of the labors of the farm. For months prior to leaving his home he was troubled with sleeplessness, and so sought the sunshine and open air, with the hopes of bringing back better health. In this he has succeeded to a gratifying degree.

GRANVILLE GETS ANOTHER BIG ONE

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Another large audience greeted the vaudeville entertainment at the Auditorium Friday evening, the bill proving very pleasing. The Granville boys are being commended for their good work in the musical sketch, entitled "Stranded in Strasburg." Axel and his dog, "Henie," scored a hit, as did Miss Helen Bertram, the operatic prima donna. Harry Shunk, the laugh producer, as usual is a cure for the blues and Ann Hamilton an company in the "Beggars," pleased everyone. The bill will close with tonight's program. Popular prices prevail.

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS. "Brewster's Millions," the amazing success of the past year in New York and Chicago, will be presented at the Auditorium Monday evening, December 2. The managers declare in a note to the program that they leave it to the audience to decide whether the play is farce, melodrama or tragedy. The dramatization of McCutcheon's book does not touch very strongly on either the comic or the unfolds the complicated plot which is said to be strong in heart interest and rich in thrilling episodes of compelling intensity, mounted with marvelous realism.

THE GINGERBREAD MAN. Nixon & Zimmerman's big production of "The Gingerbread Man" which comes to the Auditorium on Friday evening, December 6, is a bright and daring entertainment. Its fun is infectious; its music delightful; its girls are better looking than in many musical comedies; its comedians are good, and the story is interesting and well told. As usual with all the Nixon & Zimmerman productions nothing has been left undone to make "The Gingerbread Man" one of the great successes of the present season.

ORPHIUM THEATRE. Capacity business again greeted the popular little play house last evening, and business is expected to be duplicated tonight. The show this week is pleasing all, and those that have not already witnessed it should not fail tonight. Watch Monday's papers for the big show for next week. A handsome mahogany rocker will be given away at the second performance tonight. The rocker is in the Powers-Miller window.

Mr. Hammelback and Mr. Kelly are in partnership on the marketing of the invention, and are congratulating themselves on the success which it has gained in the several trials it has been put through. It was made by the Nesom & Wenz Co. of Indianapolis, and is constructed in a very portable manner, weighing complete, but 125 pounds. The machine is operated by hand-power and contains two receptacles for washing dishes.

Sore Throat Wisdom. If every mother could realize the real danger that lurks behind every case of sore throat, she wouldn't rest until she had effected a cure every time a child has it.

Your family physician will verify the statement that it is a positive fact that every child with sore throat is in immediate danger of contracting Croup, Quinsy, Tonsillitis or Diphtheria, and is not removed from that danger until the throat is cured. Think of it! Efforts or outward application of medicines do not and cannot cure the ailment, though they may offer temporary relief. Can you cure sore throat with a cough syrup or a cold cure?

To cure, you must treat at the seat of the disease, removing the cause. Nothing does that so quickly, safely and surely as TONSILINE. A single dose of TONSILINE taken upon the first appearance of sore throat may save long weeks of sickness, great expense, worry, even death. TONSILINE is the stuff in time.

Use a little sore throat wisdom and buy a bottle of TONSILINE today. You may need it tomorrow.

TONSILINE is the standard sore throat remedy—best known and most effective and most used. Look for the long necked fellow on the 25 or 50 cent sized bottle when you go to the drug store to get it. The Tonsiline Co., Canton, Ohio.

BIG GAS WELL NEAR THORNVILLE

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

It Pays to Advertise.

It certainly pays to advertise, and this fact was clearly demonstrated at the Fair Saturday morning. In Friday's paper Mr. Schiff advertised that he would place on sale 200 large dolls which would be sold at $1 each and which was a great reduction in price. They were to go on sale at 8 o'clock and long before that hour the street was crowded with eager purchasers. After the doors were open it took exactly 18 minutes to hand out the 200 bargains, each of which will make some little heart happy on Christmas day. This is only another proof of the fact that printer's ink is the medium through which to reach the holiday shoppers.

$25 REWARD

For any dental work we can do without pain. Your teeth are just as important as your stomach. If they are not in a healthy condition you can not masticate your food, and if your food is not properly masticated, your stomach can not digest it. Chronic indigestion and all its attendant nervous troubles come from bad teeth. We will restore your decayed teeth and put you on the road to health at a very reasonable cost.

HI AND SI HANDICAP THE DOCTOR AND WIN THE MONEY

SIMPLE NEGLIGEE

ALL women take pride in neat and becoming morning attire. This one is especially dainty and pretty. It is made of figured lawn, and consists of a very attractive house jacket and a practical five-gore skirt that allows of being made either with or without a flounce. A belt of the material fastened under the pleats at the waistline in back holds the fullness in place and adds in giving a trimness to the figure so essential in a garment of this kind. The square cut neck and elbow sleeves are finished with beading run with black velvet ribbon. All the washable materials as well as the lightweight woollens are appropriate for this making. The dressing sacque will require 3½ yards of 36-inch material for 36-inch bust measure. For the skirt 3½ yards will be required.

Ladies' Dressing Sacque, No. 5776. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

Ladies' Five-Gored Skirt, with or without flounce, No. 5788. Sizes for 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure.

One of the most important articles of dress included in the wardrobe of the well-dressed woman is the silk petticoat, and all designs that tend to increase the flare at the lower edge, while keeping a smooth, close fit about the waist, are in vogue. A pleasing mode of this order is here illustrated in changeable taffeta. The lower edge is finished by a dust ruffle under a circular flounce. The pattern also provides a full gathered dounce. Mohair, saten, pongee, muslin and cambric will all make up successfully. The corset cover can be made of any sheer materials such as longcloth, cambric and batiste, prettily trimmed with lace and ribbon-run beading. For 36-inches bust measure 1½ yards of 36-inch material will be required for the Corset Cover and 6¼ yards for the Skirt.

Ladies' Corset Cover, No. 5517. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

Ladies' Five-Gored Petticoat Skirt, No. 5788. Sizes for 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure.

Simple construction characterizes this design for a plain sack nightgown. It is especially suited to outing flannel, or any of the heavier materials. The shaping is effected by shoulder and under-arm seams, and a pointed yoke may be applied, thereby adding to the durability of the garment. The pattern also provides for short length, which will be found very convenient in cases of illness. The full sleeves are gathered into narrow bands and a roll-over collar finishes the neck. Muslin, nainsook, cambric and flannel are all suitable for development. For 36 inches bust measure 5½ yards of 36-inch material will be required.

Ladies' Sack Nightgown, No. 5766. In long or shorter lengths, and with or without a yoke. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44-inch bust.

An usually attractive design for an undershirt and corset cover combined, is here pictured in a development of nainsook trimmed with narrow lace. The garment is made to slip on over the head, and is gathered at the neck in front, and may hang free from the shoulders or be tucked at the waistline, thus doing away with all unnecessary fullness. Cambric, longcloth, lawn and wash silk are all used for the making, and hand embroidery, Valenciennes lace, Swiss embroidery and medallions may all be used in the decoration. For a woman 36-inch bust measure, 3½ yards of 36-inch material will be required.

Ladies' Chemise or Corset Cover and Undershirt Combined, No. 5648. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure.

Patterns will be sent to any address on receipt of ten cents by Marjorie Dane, 42 West Thirty-fourth street, New York City.

To avoid delay, do not fail to state size of pattern desired, and be sure to write name and address plainly.

"My hips are too large." "My bust is too high." "I am so short-waisted."

"I cannot wear my corsets in the house, as they hurt me."

Such are the cries that reach me in numbers every day. And to all these writers I can only say the same thing—your corsets are all wrong.

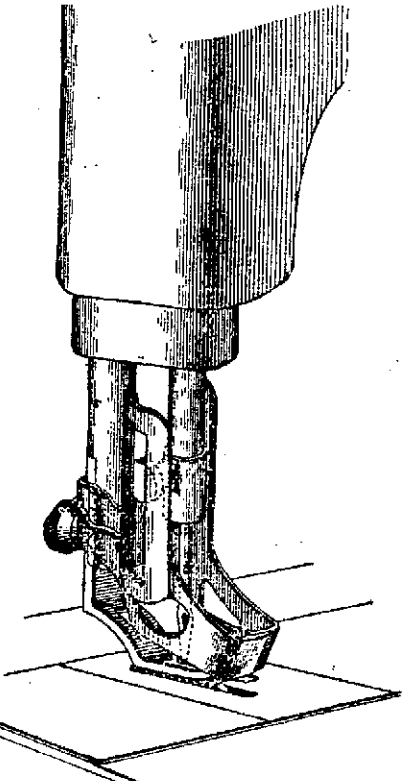

It is a most remarkable fact that women will save and pinch on the most important article of their wardrobe, an article that will make or mar their whole appearance, and that most important article of dress is nothing more or less than a properly fitted corset. A corset that fits you, represents the correct foundation for modish gowns and gives to every woman a style, ease and grace that no amount of good clothes could give to her if worn over an ill-fitting corset that pinches in one place and bulges in another.

Nine out of ten women will go into a shop and say, "Give me a white corset, size 26-inch, and then take the one that an indifferent clerk puts before them at a reasonable price. There are to-day hundreds of models on the market, and do matter what your figure is you can be fitted. If you are tall and thin, then you want a long waisted corset with a high bust that will make the most of what you have. If nature has not blessed you with any hips, then buy a corset that is cut high in the hip line, which will give full play to what little you have.

The stout woman should wear a corset-boned with real whalebone, made with bias seams and ample gorges; a long model that will reduce any abdominal prominence, with two sets of garters on them. One set must be sewed on immediately in front, and the other set directly over the hips. These garters should be of the strongest elastic about an inch and a half wide and buttoned on to the stockings. Many stout women find best results from the corset that laces in front, and such models are to be purchased for $5 up. From three to five dollars is little enough for a stout woman to pay for a corset, for she must have it made of good material and real bones. If you pay that amount of money for a corset the shop will fit it to you, taking in and letting out in places where any alterations may be necessary. I wish I might impress upon my readers the vital necessity of this investment if they wish to have their clothes look well and keep their figures trim. It is an idle boast to say "I've worn this corset ever since I was a girl." Your figure has changed, the styles have been improved and you should take advantage of the opportunity to improve with the age. Stick to the friends you made when you were a girl, read the books that were written then, but buy the most up-to-date corset that the shops offer, and have it fitted to your figure.

Many stout women take their corsets off when in the house and nothing will increase flesh more than such a practice. "But they hurt me," they argue. No corset that fits you ever hurts you. It is a support that you would never go without if you could not realize it. A corset that fits you will rest you, and you will never want to remove it except as you go to bed at night. I will be glad to suggest models for various figures to any of my readers upon a request and enclosed stamped and self-addressed envelope, and believe me, it is the most important factor towards making your clothes look well and giving you a radiant figure.

NEEDLE GUARD

The accompanying illustration is a perspective view of a portion of a sewing machine with needle guard, patented by Robert S. Williams. The guard is designed to prevent the accidental injury of the user by the needle. The needle can be threaded by simply unlatching and swinging the side, or guard portion from the needle. The inventor says that it is impossible for materials being sewed to become engaged in the needle by falling above the pressure foot.

MEAT DISHES

Baked Meat.—Buy two pounds of cheap, lean beef, veal or mutton, without bone. Simmer gently in just enough water to cover it with sliced onions and carrots to give it a flavor. Remove the meat from the broth, run through a meat chopper or mince finely. This should make about one pint of solid meat. Season with pepper and salt, add one pint of finely chopped raw potatoes, pour off and strain a cup of the water in which the meat was cooked. Add this to the mixture of meat and potatoes, turn into a baking dish, scatter bread crumbs over the top and bake in a moderate oven for one hour. A noted Pennsylvania cook varies this recipe as follows: She butters a deep baking pan, places in the bottom a layer of mashed potatoes, one of chopped meat, one of canned tomatoes, chopped so that there are no big pieces. Then comes another layer of meat, another of tomatoes with mashed potatoes on top. This she bakes a golden brown in the oven.

Mock Duck.—Pound well a round steak that is cut about half an inch thick. Spread over it a dressing as follows. Put in a frying pan a lump of butter the size of an egg, a teaspoonful of grated onion and a pinch of sage. Mix well a pint of bread crumbs, moistened with one egg. When the butter is very hot put it in, stir and turn slightly brown. Spread the steak, roll up and fasten with a few stitches. Stick with strips of fat bacon, dredge with pepper, salt and flour. Put in a dripping pan with a little water and bake frequently. Bake an hour in a moderate oven and serve with a gravy made of the water in the pan thickened with flour. Slice this without unrolling.

Beautiful Mouth and Teeth

Cultivate smiles, for these keep the lines softened and help to hide old age. Habitual pouting enlarges and coarsens the under lip, and all the unconscious tricks of facial expressions increase and deepen the lines. In positive malformations, of course, a surgeon should be consulted, but the slight defects can be largely relieved at home. Stand before a mirror and "try on" pleasant expression just as you would a new bonnet. Try and try again, always looking in the glass. Strive to attain a smile that shows your teeth, for the whiteness of them will lend brightness to an otherwise dull face.

All this may seem very foolish, but a well practiced and sweet smile will conquer many ills and take years off a hardened, much troubled face. For those who are troubled with very thick lips an astringent pomade should be used, and I will gladly send such a formula to any of my readers upon request, while those women who have rather thin lips should coax them by rubbing in glycerine and rosewater—the best lotion that I know of for that purpose.

The teeth must be pretty if the smile is to be an effective one, and too much care cannot be given them. No matter how ugly your teeth are by nature it is only a matter of a few dollars and cents to make them beautiful, for dentistry has accomplished great things in the past few years.

In advising a woman how to keep her mouth young, I would say, massage is the easiest cure obtainable. For this there are simple exercises. Always press outward and upward at the corners of the mouth, pressing the thumbs at the opposite corners of the mouth and gently pushing upward, thus helping to form the cupid's bow so much desired. Another very good movement is to place three fingers of each hand upon the tip of your chin, pressing hard into the flesh and gradually but firmly work them upward and outward up to the middle of your cheeks.

One point not to be neglected by women of 30 and over is to prevent the corners of the mouth from sagging. At that age the muscles are apt to relax, and this should be guarded against. A simple exercise to prevent this fault is holding water in the mouth for a few moments, while another is filling the mouth with air and holding it. Both of these exercises discipline the muscles. Tanning is also very good for stiffened muscles.

A letter from one of my correspondents tells me that she has been using pumice stone on her teeth every day for four months, and yet they are not white. Nothing can be worse than such heroic treatment. Her yellow teeth are probably caused by some organic trouble, and that must be cured before the whiteness returns to the teeth. Make a practice of going to the dentist twice a year and have him clean your teeth with pumice and remove all the tartar, and then brush them yourself morning and evening with hot water and a good dentifrice which your dentist will be glad to recommend. Going over your teeth with a little peroxide in the water will make them shine, and nothing is prettier than a set of glistening teeth between two rosy lips. If glycerine and rosewater do not agree with your lips, then try pure almond oil. Some very tender lips cannot stand the effect of glycerine.

Artificial dimples are not easily secured, though in Paris where great risks are taken by the women who want to be beautiful, they do it every day. Cutting a dimple in the chin is rather a simple process, and little risk is taken. With the cheeks, however, it is quite a different story. The operation leaves a scar almost as often as it produces the desired dimple, and hence the practice is to be avoided. Dimples come naturally in plump cheeks, and the thing to do is to massage your cheeks and try to fatten them, and then nature will send the desired dimple.

The old saying is that dimples and blushes go together, but old sayings are not always true. Blushing is largely a matter of practice and a result of a good healthy skin. The woman who lets her skin grow dull and thick, with hardened muscles and the corners of her mouth sagging, will never find herself blushing; while the girl who looks well to her complexion and her general health will find the rosy flushes come easily.

Laugh as much as you can. Better have a few tiny wrinkles about the eyes that massage will eliminate, than to go about with a pouting face and sagging mouth. And when you smile, don't do it in an absent-minded manner. It is one of woman's greatest and strongest attractions—that of a pleasant smile. Look at the person you smile at, and practice showing your teeth. There is quite a trick in lifting the upper lip, allowing the teeth to show. Stand in front of the glass and practice it until you get just the right smile that will show two rows of glistening teeth, and you will have gone far toward helping your personal appearance.

Cleaning a Sick-Room

NEVER put a broom on the floor of the bed spread down lengths of washable cotton, which can be removed, and after taken clean or washed clean twice a day.

To clean under a bed, dampen an old bath-towel and run it firmly over a clean light broom, then go over the surface, holding the broom almost flat, and moving it in long, gentle strokes. This can be done in a minute, and prevents the distressing accumulation of dust and dirt.

Summed in a word, sick-room cleanliness, like much else of sick-room management, means prevention. The room must be scrupulously clean in the beginning. Given that advantage, reasonable care will keep it wholesome for at least six months.

HIS REWARD

W. L. ALDEN, the novelist, who has returned from London to Buffalo, to pass the rest of his life at home, was talking to a reporter about the modern commercial spirit.

"Frankly," said the author, "I abominate the modern commercial spirit. It makes men rich, but how it hardens their hearts."

"I once knew an old, old man, a bookkeeper. His back was bent, but his soul was upright. He had worked for the same firm—and the same salary—for 40 years."

"Well, at the end of these 40 years, my poor old friend said to his employer timidly: 'Are you aware, sir, that to-day is the 40th anniversary of my service with you?'

The employer took a square box, neatly wrapped in white paper, from his desk.

"I know it, Mr. Quille," he said, "and I have prepared a little surprise for you. Pray accept this alarm clock with my best wishes for your continued punctuality."

"Thank you very much," said the old man, and he took the alarm clock with a grateful look.

"I am sure," said the employer, "that you will find it very useful."

WASHING GLASS

IF it were done, when it were done, then "twere done quickly," is the precept for washing all sorts of fine glass—cut-glass especially. Standing in water, no matter how clear, robs the cutting of lustre and puts it almost on a level with pressed glass. Still, one must make haste slowly.

Begin the haste some time before the beginning of washing. No matter if there is but a single bowl, wash it apart from everything else, and in perfectly clean water. If the bowl, or dish, or saucer is caked and sticky inside from standing after use, fill it with blood-warm soda-water, and shake it vigorously for a minute, then repeat until the glass begins to show clear.

With any very fine or fragile glass, especially pieces that have slender stems, or necks, or handles, set the pieces securely in a broad, shallow tray covered with a double cloth, soft and clean, and place the tray upon the table at the right hand of the dish-pan. If the sink is some way off, set a basin for rinsings in front of the pan, and a pitcher of moderately hot water between the basin and the tray of soiled glass. An agate-ware pan not too small is best. Fold a soft, wide clean towel in four, and lay it at the bottom of the pan. Then pour in water, hot and cold. Half-a-gallon of strictly boiling water to three quarts of cold gives about the right temperature. Put a tablespoonful of ammonia to the gallon. Use also a little white soap. Never let yellow soap touch glass of any sort—the resin in it makes a cloudy dull surface.

Put in the glass, a piece at a time, thus alone is one insured against chipping or cracking. Have a clean soft wash-cloth, also a very soft brush. Wash the glass quickly, using the brush on all the cutting, then pass it through a pan of rinsing water. The rinse-water needs to be a little hotter—some-half fully boiling, and the heat kept up by adding more boiling water from time to time. Do not keep the glass in it longer than a minute, wash it vigorously about, then turn upside-down over the pan, and set, still upside-down, upon a draining board, covered like the pan-bottoms, with a folded towel.

Let it drain until the next piece is ready for the board, then take up and plunge in a deep box of fine sifted sawdust, either oak or white wood. No polishing or rubbing wood gives dust fit to use. If the dust is hot, all the better. It should be kept in a clean bag, and hung over the stove, or laid inside a warm oven, a little time before it is to be used.

The House Palm and Its Care

THE greenhouse has all the world of flowers for its parish. The living-room, less lucky, must content itself with what will thrive and grow in it. The list is none so long but still full of choice things. Palms, for example. It is scarcely worth while to attempt house-culture of more than half-a-dozen species, but why complain when that half-dozen includes the fern-like Kentia, the lusty round-leaved Lantana Borbonica, and the stiff Old World grace of the sago palm!

These and about as many more, will thrive and burgeon in a sunny window of temperature that never goes lower than fifty degrees. High heat does not hurt them; they are all children of the tropics. But great and sudden alternations of heat and comparative cold make the leaves spot, and look raggedly disconsolate. Give them plenty of pot-room, but not too much. Shift once a year, if growth requires it, but not oftener. Once in two years is more likely to be right, unless the palm's lines have fallen in exceptionally sunny and well-aired places.

Fertilize every fortnight. A palm in fair growth needs a teaspoonful of ammoniated bone-meal, either dug in about the roots or stirred over through tepid water and poured over the pot. In between fertilizing water well but not too well. Never let water stand in the saucer around the pot. But in watering, keep on until a little shows through. That is proof that the earth is properly soaked. After such soaking leave it untouched until there are little dry blotches upon the upper surface.

Beware the ordinary gardener. Many a good palm and tree has died of hideous red or yellow glazed carapace. Palm roots need air, nice free-circulating air, not that which is damp, and close, and full of mould bred by confinement. The dampness alone often rots off the fine feeding rootlets, and sets up decay that at last runs on to the main stalk. Keep the pots clean outside. There is hardly a hue more artistic than that of clean, dull red earth.
